Getting to Know Taiwan

We welcome you to our friendly island paradise!

Taiwan is a modern, free, democratic society whose people are hardworking, fun-loving, educated and friendly. While eagerly embracing the future, the people of Taiwan hold onto traditional values and ideals. The family, including ancestors, is of utmost importance; education and scholarship are held in high esteem; and traditional forms of writing, architecture and art are part of everyday life. Yes, in Taiwan the ancient and modern, traditional and new are seamlessly woven together, creating a fascinating, dynamic society like no other in the world.

More About Taiwan

History

The name "Taiwan", meaning "terraced bay", was first used in 1430 by Admiral Cheng Ho of the Ming court. In the 16th century, the Portuguese named the island "Ilha Formosa" meaning "Beautiful Island". The name Formosa was used until the end of WWII.

Situated between northern and southern Asia, Taiwan has long played a crucial role in trade and politics. Taiwan's location brought frequent invasions, but also provided the conditions needed for a modern, prosperous and democratic country.

Climate

In subtropical, northern Taiwan, the temperature during the cool, mild winters averages 18°C / 64°F. The average temperature rises to 31°C / 88°F during the hot, humid summers. Southern Taiwan has a tropical, marine climate with generally warm and relatively dry weather.

In the mountains, temperate conditions prevail. Snow may accumulate on some of the highest peaks, such as Yu Shan and Ho-Huan Shan. Rain may fall at any time, but the greatest amount usually falls from April to August. Typhoon season is from May to September.

Pearl Milk Tea

Culture

The culture of Taiwan is a blend of modern and traditional, national and international, unique and universal. Due to Taiwan's complex political history, the influences of indigenous culture, Confucianism, Japan, and Western civilization all can be seen at the same time.

The Japanese occupation of Taiwan from 1895 to 1945 influenced language, culture, and architecture. Visitors can still find a Japanese-style mansion and hear old Japanese songs emanating from nearby taverns.

Taiwan's aboriginal culture is unique and has started to flourish since the Ami chant "Jubilant Drinking Song" was sampled in a song to promote the 1996 Olympics. However, the dominant culture in Taiwan is still Chinese. Immigrants from mainland China, especially those who arrived in 1949, after civil war, brought Confucianism and Chinese culture to Taiwan. The National Palace Museum has an outstanding collection of 650,000 pieces of ancient Chinese artifacts brought from the Forbidden City, making it a major attraction for visitors. Visitors also will see ornate temples and traditional Chinese characters.

Geography

Taiwan lies along the western edge of the Pacific Ocean, 193 km (120 miles) off the southeastern coast of mainland China. Taiwan has a land area of about 36,000 square km (14,400 square miles) and is nearly bisected by the Tropic of Cancer. The island is shaped somewhat like a sweet potato.

Taiwan has broad plains, rolling hills, and precipitous mountains that form the spine of the island. There are six peaks over 3,500m - the highest is Yu Shan at 3,952m - and more than 200 peaks over 3,000m. Swift rivers have carved steep gorges through the mountains. Taroko Gorge, with vertical rock walls hundreds of meters high, is a wonder of nature. Geothermal activity has produced many hot springs in mountains.

Due to the abundant rainfall and generally warm temperatures, vegetation grows rampantly in Taiwan, from lowland agricultural crops to all manner of plant life cloaking the hills and mountains. Due to its unique climate and geography, the flora and fauna of Taiwan are tremendously diverse, and many species are endemic to the island.

Cuisine

In Taiwan, where it seems the people live to eat, it is said that there is a snack shop every three steps and a restaurant every five. Foods and dishes from around the world are available in Taiwan. However, Taiwan's native cuisine, which has gained worldwide attention, is unforgettable - try it just once and you will remember it forever. Memorable dishes include: Pearl Milk Tea, Danzai Noodles, Shrimp Pork Soup, Oyster Omelet, Meat Rice Tamales, Stinky Tofu, Taiwanese Meatballs, Coffin Sandwich, Veggie and Meat Wrap, Oyster Vermicelli, Steamed Sandwich, and Crushed Ice Dessert.

Living in Taiwan

1 Accommodations

Some Chinese learning centers provide on-campus dormitories. Each dormitory houses only men or only women. Typically, 4 to 6 students share a room. The number of beds is limited.

If dormitories are unavailable or you prefer a different living arrangement, off-campus apartments, including studios and flats, are available. Most Chinese learning centers provide information about local rentals on the internet. Depending on the accommodation's type, quality and location, rent ranges from NT$3,000 to 9000 per month. For further information please see the Tsuei Ma-Ma Foundation website.

2 Services

Insurance

Foreigners with an Alien Resident Certificate (ARC) who have resided in Taiwan for four months must enroll in the National Health Insurance (NHI) program at a local administrative office. Before they are eligible for the NHI program, students can purchase their own insurance or participate in a temporary health insurance program offered by the foreign students' office at their educational institution.

Foreigners, who have lost their residence status because they no longer hold a valid ARC or have left Taiwan permanently, will also lose their right to participate in the NHI program. They must withdraw their subscription to the NHI program through their group insurance applicant (their employers or local administration offices) and then return their NHI card to the group insurance applicant and pay the premiums in full before leaving Taiwan.

When traveling overseas for a short period of time, either on business or on vacation, and then returning to Taiwan with a valid ARC, foreigners must remain enrolled in the NHI program.

Bank Accounts

Most banks offer foreign currency exchange and bank services in NT dollars. Foreign students can open bank accounts with their passports and ARC cards. Individual who wants to open an account without an ARC card needs to get a universal identification number at the local police office.

Postage

Chunghwa Post, the postal service of Taiwan, provides international and domestic mail services to the public. There are over a thousand branches, distributed all over the island, providing regular and express postal service. Foreign students can apply for a postal box at the nearest branch.

In addition, most convenience stores serve as pick up locations for international and domestic express services. Students who receive Taiwan Scholarship need to open an account at a post office of Chunghwa Post.

3 Work

International students who have attended school in Taiwan for two semesters or a language program for one year, and who have an excellent academic record, can work in Taiwan when one of the following applies:

- Events of a serious nature have affected their financial ability to support themselves or continue their education, and the student can provide evidence of such circumstances.
- An academic research institution at the student's school requires a foreign student to provide assistance in its work.
- The student needs to take part in an off-campus internship related to his or her field of study.

Note

Further information about National Health Insurance (NHI):

It's a health insurance for all people in Taiwan since 1995. The main goals are to improve patients' access to health care by easing their financial burden and to make sure that no one would be forced into bankruptcy by a serious illness.

Transportation

By Air

There are six domestic airlines providing services between major cities such as Taipei, Taichung, Tainan, Kaohsiung and Hualien. Prior reservations are always required.

By Train

The railway network along the coastline is another economic option for traveling around Taiwan. There are four classes of passenger seats: Tze-chiang, Chu-kuang, Fu-hsing and economy. Traveling by train is recommended on public holidays because it can avoid the hustle and bustle of the long distance highway bus service. Advanced ticket reservations are recommended.

By Taiwan High Speed Rail (THSR)

If you would like to save time, THSR is another choice. While traveling from Taipei to Kaohsiung takes 5 hours by train and 6 hours by car, the THSR takes only 1.5 hours. Advanced reservations are recommended.

By Metro / Subway

In Taipei and Kaohsiung, the metro system (MRT) provides convenient and comfortable transportation. There are nine major routes in Taipei and two major routes in Kaohsiung, covering different parts of the two cities. Metro fares range from NTD20-60(USD0.6-2).

By Bus & Taxi

Each major city has its own bus system. Fares are inexpensive and service is frequent. Taxi fares start at NTD 70 (USD 2.3) and increase with the time and distance traveled. It is a good idea to have the name of your hotel or address written in Chinese when you travel by taxi.

By Motorcycle/Scooter & Bicycle

Motorcycles and scooters are very popular means of transportation. Most universities provide motorcycle/scooter parking around campus for students. Bicycles are widely used within campuses. Bicycle racks can be found throughout campuses.

By Highway Bus

Long distance highway bus services provided by private transportation companies are very popular. They have an extensive network and a frequent service schedule. Tickets are usually competitively priced and some bus companies even provide 24 hour service.

By Passenger Car

In Taiwan, cars are driven on the right. Students with international driver licenses may drive in Taiwan. However, driving is not recommended for those who are unfamiliar with the unique road and traffic conditions in Taiwan. Traffic is heavy and car drivers must watch out for slow-moving pedestrians and bicyclists, fast-moving motorcycles and scooters, as well as other cars, buses and trucks. Drivers have to be extra cautious. International or foreign driver license holders can apply for ROC driver licenses at the local Motor Vehicles Office.

Test of Chinese as a Foreign Language (TOCFL)

1 Organization Introduction

The Steering Committee for the Test Of Proficiency-Huayu (SC-TOP) was established in November 2005 under the direction of the Ministry of Education of R.O.C. Originally "Chinese Language Testing Center" and renamed in January, 2007, the Committee aims to develop and promote an effective Chinese assessment system, mainly the Test of Chinese as a Foreign Language (TOCFL), for Chinese learners worldwide to assess their Chinese proficiency.

2 Test Introduction

TOCFL is a foreign language proficiency test for non-native speakers of Chinese. Those who wish to know about their level of Chinese proficiency, or those who want to study, work or do business in Chinese speaking countries are welcome to register for the test.

TOCFL is administrated in four levels, For Beginners, Basic, Intermediate, and Advanced.

For the Basic, Intermediate and Advanced levels of TOCFL, each level has three sections, including listening, vocabulary and grammar, and reading. The total number of test items is 100, and the total testing time is 110 minutes.

The For Beginners level of TOCFL measures both listening and reading skills of non-native Chinese speakers at the beginning level. The first test was administrated in Nov. 2007. The total number of test items is 80, and the total testing time is 80 minutes.

TOCFL is given in multiple-choice items. Test takers get one point for each correct answer. There is no penalty deduction for the incorrect answer.

7 TOCFL Testing Overseas

To meet the demand of numerous international Chinese learners, the SC-TOP has started to provide overseas test services since 2006. Candidates can now choose to take the TOCFL test in Japan, Korea, Thailand, Vietnam, USA, UK, and France. Also, the SC-TOP plans to increase test locations annually. 1 Talk about Taiwan

I had a great time in Taiwan last 3 months! Actually I used to study Chinese at Asia Paris Away which is a language school in Shanghai. Most people always choose China to learn Chinese but I think it is not the best way to learn Chinese because I've been to almost every city in China. If they have been to Taiwan they will know Taiwan is much better than Mainland China. MLC has everything for you to study Chinese; we have best teacher and textbook, not to mention the free wifi all over the campus. However, Taiwanese is very kind and the food in Taiwan is so yummy! Come to Taiwan and feel the Asia's heart, otherwise you will regret whole your life.

2 My thoughts about Taiwan

I lived in Taiwan for a full year and was the greatest experience I ever had, because I met so many people from different countries and we could all share what our countries are about. The Taiwanese people where the most friendly and respectful that I have known till now, and I loved the way they like to share their culture, I admire Taiwanese people for their hard working spirit and dedication to whatever they do for living. I was fascinated for the cultural activities and festivities that they have all year long, but most important fact is that they will welcome us foreigners to participate and to learn about them. Thanks to Taiwan I have learned lots of things about respect, love and pride about my culture, and the importance about discipline applied in the daily routine, things that I'll be working to apply in my life, work and to my own country.

3 Ilha Formosa

Eight months ago I came here knowing very little about Taiwan and with no idea of what to expect. After a month I could easily say I love living here. I attend a great CLC at the beautiful THU campus and often visit the local night markets. In and out of school, I've met many kind, helpful and sincerely friendly people. Some are very shy and don't have the courage to approach a foreigner like me, but they still try to chat or ask if I need help, inviting me to enjoy Taiwan. Initially I came to Taiwan for a short adventure, to experience a different lifestyle and try that crazy Chinese language! I'm staying because of the unique culture, fascinating language and the warm people and beautiful places I've encountered.

4 My thoughts about Taiwan

I have never been outside of the country or immersed into a different culture before, so I didn't know what to expect from traveling to Taiwan on my own. One of the first things I noticed about Taiwan was the people. Some times in the mornings when I would study outside before class, random people would approach me to say 'good morning'. Simple things like this made me feel really welcomed and at ease during my time at Taiwan. The thing I cherish the most from my stay in Taiwan would have to be the relationships I made with a lot of the Taiwanese students that volunteered to be a part of this program. I learned so much about Taiwan's culture, history and life style because of these students. Traveling to Taiwan has definitely been the most eye-opening experience I have ever had in my life so far. I am forever grateful had this opportunity and wouldn't hesitate do it again if I had the chance. I will cherish the experiences and memories I made with my friends from Taiwan forever. Thank you so much, Taiwan, for the memories and relationships that I will hold dear to me forever.

5 My Life in Pingtung

I am Japanese and stay in Taiwan for six months. I now live in Pingtung and study Mandarin at NPUE. I was shocked that the summer here is so long and the weather is always in high temperature. But, I am used to it gradually. I am interested in Taiwanese food dietary culture, which is so different from that in Japan. There are a lot of night markets and food stands in Taiwan and I want to try all the different food they provide every week. When I have problems, Taiwanese people would help and they treat me like my family. I like the weather, food, and enthusiastic people here in Pingtung.

6 Chinese, a language for artists...

Up to 24 years old, I was an opera singer, a tenor. Now I am a catholic priest, on a mission to Taipei for a little over a year. Taiwan is very different from Italy, but I settled in very soon. Taiwanese are so friendly and hospitable! A very interesting challenge for me is to learn Chinese. I think Mandarin is a language for artists: when you write the characters it is like painting, and when you talk using the five tones, it's really like singing... I like it! I am very happy to learn a language so unique and really nice.
